Price Reduction! Seller says to bring all offers! Built by Captain Beriah Maybury in 1772 and known as the Kings' Arms Tavern, this Historically designated property is a MUST SEE! This Five-Bay wide brick Single Family Home sits on top of a high scored stone foundation. 9.5 foot ceilings illuminated by nearly floor to ceiling windows showcase a lovely Library with built-In Bookcases and a wood burning Fireplace; a Two Room Parlor, also with a wood burning Fireplace; an addition erected possibly as early as the 1830's includes a large Dining Room with high domed ceiling, a kitchen and a small porch. The upstairs 4 Bedrooms, 3 with their own wood burning Fireplace, wood floors, 2 full Baths and laundry provide plenty of room! The partially finished basement, most recently used as a woodworking shop, has a separate street entrance and could possibly be reimagined as additional living space. The long, gated driveway leads to 2 garage spaces and parking for an additional 6 cars and a charming English garden and patio area. Furnace chimney recently relined. This home is being sold AS IS, but has great bones. Bring your own TLC. Call Listing Agent with questions.
