SUMNER, Bethesda, MD

A RARE OPPORTUNITY TO BUY A MILLER BUILT HOME AT OR BELOW REPLACEMENT COST!!!

Nestled in one of Bethesda's most coveted neighborhoods, this classic fieldstone facade, W.C. and A. N. Miller built home effortlessly combines timeless architecture with modern comfort and easy everyday living. With more than 3,100 square feet of beautifully maintained space on an 8,614-square-foot, flat and private lot, the home welcomes you with newly refinished, gleaming hardwood floors, new Marvin Windows (front) and sun-drenched rooms adorned in a fresh, neutral palette. The heart of the home is a spacious family room perfect for entertaining opening directly to a large, fully fenced backyard ideal for summer barbecues, al fresco dinners, or quiet morning coffee. Two charming wood-burning fireplaces add warmth and character throughout the seasons. The lower level offers exceptional flexibility, featuring a bonus room that can easily serve as a fourth bedroom, private office, or creative studio. Ideally situated less than a mile from Westbard Square, residents can enjoy local favorites such as Starbucks, Piccoli Piatti and Tatte Bakery & Café, offering both casual and upscale dining just moments from home. The conveniences of Sumner Village are a huge bonus and a short drive brings you to downtown Bethesda's vibrant restaurant scene or if you prefer the serenity of the area's parks, just across the street you can access the Capital Crescent Trail. Currently located within the highly sought-after Whitman School district (reference Mont. Co. for latest map for potential redistricting), this home offers classic style, modern amenities, and an unbeatable Bethesda locationâ€”delivering the perfect blend of charm, comfort, and convenience. See documents for offering instructions.
